

Wellness & Performance

Annual Physical Therapist Exam

Identify and address small issues before they progress to joint or muscle pain with our annual physical therapist exam. One of our physical therapists will assess your posture, strength, flexibility and balance with a specific eye towards identifying asymmetries or imbalances that can be easily addressed by performing a few simple exercises on your own.

Schedule your appointment in the same month every year to make this injury-saving consultation part of your annual routine!

$80